TIN LUTHER KING, JR. DAY
TS LEGACY AWARD SYMPOSIUM

MICHAEL E. HEISLEY, SR.

Chief Executive Officer

Michael Heisley, chairman of The Heico Companies, LLC, purchased the Grizzlies on April 11, 2000 from John McCaw after initially coming to an agreement in January of that year. The purchase of the Grizzlies allowed Heisley, a lifelong basketball fan, to achieve his dream.

One of Heisley's first moves to bring a winner to the city of Memphis was hiring NBA legend Jerry West, one of the top basketball executives in the NBA, as the president of basketball operations on April 30, 2002. Less than two years later, the Grizzlies won a franchise-record 50 games in 2003-04 and clinched their first playoff berth in club history. Under West and Heisley's leadership, the Grizzlies made the playoffs in three-straight seasons from 2003-04 to 2005-06, making them one of just nine teams to qualify for the NBA Playoffs in each of those seasons.

Following West's retirement in 2007, Heisley immediately set out once again to re-shape the franchise.

On June 18, 2007, Heisley announced the hiring of Chris Wallace as the team's new general manager and vice president of basketball operations. Wallace joined the Grizzlies after serving the previous 10 seasons as general manager of the Boston Celtics and has long been highly regarded for his plethora of knowledge across the basketball spectrum from the high school to professional levels and overseas.

Heisley and Wallace wasted no time improving the roster, stockpiling some of the best young talent in the NBA including guard O.J. Mayo (acquired in 2008 NBA Draft day trade with the Minnesota Timberwolves), guard Mike Conley (fourth overall pick in 2007 NBA Draft), center Marc Gasol (acquired in a trade with the Los Angeles Lakers) and forward Darrell Arthur (acquired in 2008 NBA Draft day trade with the Houston Rockets). Along with rising star Rudy Gay, the Grizzlies formed the NBA's youngest starting lineup in the 2008-09 season. To aid their development, Heisley tabbed longtime Grizzlies assistant coach and two-time interim head coach Lionel Hollins as the club's new head coach on Jan. 25, 2009 and, collaborating with Wallace, acquired future Hall of Fame guard Allen Iverson and veteran power forward Zach Randolph last offseason.

But no matter how good a team is on the court, it must have the backing of fans and the community. Heisley recognizes this, and has made strides to establish the Grizzlies as a leader in community involvement. Heisley has taken the lead on numerous large community initiatives, including spearheading a $5 million donation from the Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Foundation to the St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to build the Memphis Grizzlies House, a temporary on-campus residence for the families of St. Jude patients.

The Foundation, led by the Grizzlies' ownership group, has given a total of $7 million to Memphis Athletic Ministries, who operate six neighborhood centers and run year-round youth sports leagues and after-school programs, and another $1.5 million to Stax Music Academy. Furthermore, the Charitable Foundation helped found Grizzlies Academy, a "second chance" high school which opened in 2003, and has awarded diplomas to four graduating classes since 2006. But those are just the tip of the iceberg. The Grizzlies Foundation has donated over $22 million to local non-profit organizations since December 2001, raising the bar for charitable giving in professional sports. The Foundation's commitment to giving earned it the coveted 2007 Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award from the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation as the most philanthropic sports team in the nation.

Of course, the biggest project the Grizzlies organization participated in was the construction of FedExForum, a state-of-the-art arena for the Grizzlies. The arena, the largest public works project in the history of the city of Memphis, was completed in September 2004 on time and on budget, and has set a new standard for NBA arenas. Fans flocked to FedExForum in its inaugural season, setting a franchise record with 18 sellouts, more than the first three seasons in Memphis combined.

Heisley's commitment to the community has been a thank you to Memphis for welcoming him and the team with open arms when he decided to relocate the franchise from Vancouver in the summer of 2001. Prior to deciding on Memphis as his destination, Heisley embarked on a cross-country odyssey to find a new home for his Grizzlies. Upon arriving in Memphis, he knew he'd found that home. Buoyed by impressive corporate and community support, Heisley successfully brought the NBA to Memphis.

Away from the court, Heico Acquisitions Inc., a key subsidiary of The Heico Companies, acts as an investment firm, specializing in buying interests in under-performing companies and turning them around. Heico holds interests in approximately 40 businesses worldwide within a diverse set of industries, including steel wire products, heavy equipment, telecommunications, plastics, food production and material handling equipment. The 40 businesses owned by Heico and its subsidiaries have over $2.5 billion in revenue and employ approximately 13,000 people in varying capacities in the United States and internationally.

Heisley was born in Washington, D.C. and grew up in Alexandria, Va. He holds a Bachelor of Arts from Georgetown University, where he served on the Board of Directors, Regents and Visitors for over 20 years. He also serves on the Board of Directors of several portfolio companies along with the Heisley Family Foundation. Heisley resides in Jupiter, Fla. with his wife, Agnes. They have five children and 12 grandchildren.

GENE BARTOW

President, Hoops LP

Gene Bartow, a legendary college basketball coach and Southern native, enters his ninth season with the Grizzlies and third in his role as president of Hoops LP, which operates the Grizzlies and FedExForum.

Bartow's first six seasons with the organization were as an advisor on basketball and team-related matters such as scouting college and professional basketball talent, acting as an ambassador in the community and selling season tickets and sponsorships.

With 34 years of coaching experience spanning four decades, Bartow has amassed 647 collegiate wins over his career with six universities: the University of Alabama at Birmingham (1977-96), the University of California at Los Angeles (1975-77), the University of Illinois (1974-75), Memphis State University (1970-74), Valparaiso University (1964-70) and Central Missouri State University (1961-64).

Recently, Bartow was named as one of the eight inductees to this year's class who will be enshrined in the National Collegiate Basketball Hall of Fame on Nov. 22, 2009. He will be joined by fellow basketball legends Larry Bird and Magic Johnson, along with Travis Grant, Walter Byers, Bill Wall, Jud Heathcote and Wayman Tisdale.

During his four seasons at Memphis State, Bartow earned Missouri Valley Coach of the Year honors in 1972 and was named National Coach of the Year in 1973. With forward Larry Finch setting nine school records in the chase, Bartow's Tigers reached the national championship game in 1973, where they fell to the Bill Walton-led UCLA Bruins.

After coaching opposite John Wooden in the title game, Bartow spent one season at Illinois before succeeding the legendary coach on the UCLA sidelines in 1975, guiding the Bruins to a 52-9 record and a berth in the 1976 Final Four.

In 1977, he accepted the challenge of initiating the athletics department at UAB. Fittingly, men's basketball was the first sports program on campus, and Bartow manned the Blazers' sidelines for 19 seasons as head coach while maintaining duties as athletic director. In the program's second season of existence, Bartow led the Blazers to an NIT appearance and followed up with seven consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament.

Bartow turned over the coaching role at UAB to his son Murry in 1996 but remained the school's athletic director until 2000. UAB Arena, home to the Blazers' men's and women's basketball teams, was renamed Bartow Arena in 1997. The Blazers have won over 80 percent of their home games in the venue's existence (250-53, .825).

Gene and his wife, Ruth, have three children and seven grandchildren.

CHRIS WALLACE

General Manager/Vice President, Basketball Operations

On his first day on the job, Chris Wallace outlined his goal for the Memphis Grizzlies: "I'm here to build a championship team. I want to see a parade one day down Beale Street. This city deserves it."

That statement marked the beginning of a new chapter for the Grizzlies when they hired Wallace as the team's general manager and vice president of basketball operations on June 18, 2007.

Wallace and Chief Executive Officer Michael Heisley have set forth a three-year plan to build through the draft and transform the Memphis Grizzlies into perennial playoff contenders.

Wallace has quickly assembled some of the best young talent in the NBA with the acquisitions of O.J. Mayo (third overall pick in the 2008 NBA Draft), Mike Conley (4th, 2007), Marc Gasol (48th, 2007), Darrell Arthur (27th, 2008), Hasheem Thabeet (2nd, 2009), DeMarre Carroll (27th, 2009) and Sam Young (36th, 2009) to surround rising star Rudy Gay, talented veteran power forward Zach Randolph and future Hall of Fame guard Allen Iverson.

Well-traveled and well-connected, Wallace came to the Grizzlies as one of the most respected executives in the league, having served under six NBA franchises since 1986. Wallace has worked with five former NBA Executive of the Year winners, including Danny Ainge, Red Auerbach, Jerry West, Bucky Buckwalter and Geoff Petrie. In addition, he has worked alongside Basketball Hall of Fame members Billy Cunningham and Pat Riley. He spent the previous 10 seasons as the general manager of the Boston Celtics. In his role with the Celtics, Wallace had a hand in all basketball-related decisions, including free agent signings, trades and draft preparations.

Prior to becoming the Celtics' general manager, Wallace was director of player personnel for the Miami Heat. The Heat won a franchise-record 61 games in 1996-97 and Wallace is credited with discovering many of the Heat's players. His responsibilities included college and international scouting and searching for potential talent in the CBA as well as the NBA. Wallace was promoted to that position after four years as a scout for the Heat.

Before joining the Heat, Wallace worked in various scouting capacities for the Portland Trail Blazers, Denver Nuggets, Los Angeles Clippers and New York Knicks. He also worked as a draft consultant for the United States Basketball League. Wallace has also served on the selection committee for the prestigious Nike/ABCD and Converse ABCD national high school camps, evaluating scores of future college and NBA stars.

Wallace, an avid basketball fan before breaking into the NBA, got his start in basketball in 1981 when he founded the award-winning Blue Ribbon College Basketball Yearbook. Sports Illustrated named Wallace as one of the most influential members of the college basketball media in 1991. He has also served as an expert witness in basketball-related litigation. Wallace is also a member of the Board of Directors at the Touchdown Club of Memphis and enjoys a relationship with the Grizzlies Academy.

A native of Buckhannon, W.V., Wallace and his wife, Debby, have a son, Truman.

LIONEL HOLLINS

Head Coach

When Lionel Hollins took the reins as the 11th head coach in Grizzlies history on Jan. 25, 2009, he immediately set out to establish a team identity founded on playing hard and competing as a team every night.

By the end of the 2008-09 season, Hollins had made his mark, instilling his work ethic on a young and hungry roster. The Grizzlies posted their first winning month (5-4 record in April) in three years and several of the team's younger players responded to Hollins' tutelage. Most notably, point guard Mike Conley, the fourth overall pick in the 2007 NBA Draft, posted 14.3 points, 3.9 rebounds and 5.7 assists in 39 games under Hollins' direction after averaging 7.9 points, 2.9 rebounds and 3.0 assists before the coaching change.

The Grizzlies finished the year 13-26 (.333) under Hollins after starting the season 11-32 (.256).

For Hollins, it was a new experience with a familiar team. The 21-year NBA coaching veteran was an original member of the Vancouver franchise and was a staple on the coaching sidelines for the following 12 years (1995-07). Hollins, who conducted his first training camp as head coach in October, also served as the club's interim head coach on two separate occasions. Hollins guided Vancouver to an 18-42 finish (.300) in 1999-00, replacing Brian Hill after the team started the season 4-18, and again took over for four games in 2004-05 following the resignation of Hall of Famer Hubie Brown. Hollins owns an overall coaching record of 31-72 (.301), including two stints as Grizzlies interim head coach.

Prior to joining the Grizzlies, the Arizona State graduate spent seven years with the Phoenix Suns (1988-95) as an assistant coach under Cotton Fitzsimmons and later Paul Westphal. During that time, Phoenix compiled an overall record of 394-180 (.686) and never won fewer than 53 games in a single season. The Suns won a franchise-record 62 games in the 1992-93 season and represented the Western Conference in the 1993 NBA Finals against the Chicago Bulls. After sitting out the 2007-08 season, Hollins returned the sidelines in 2008 as an assistant under Milwaukee Bucks Head Coach Scott Skiles.

The Arkansas City, Kan. native has honed his straightforward, no-nonsense approach by serving under three NBA Coaches of the Year, including Brown (1977, 2005), Fitzsimmons (1978, 1989) and Mike Fratello (1986) and was on the coaching staff when Brown and Fitzsimmons were honored with the award a second time. In addition, as a 10-year NBA veteran (1975-85), Hollins was led by several notable head coaches, including the NBA's all-time coaching wins leader and Hall of Famer Lenny Wilkens, Hall of Famers Jack Ramsay, Billy Cunningham and Chuck Daly, as well as Bill Fitch and Paul Silas.

Selected sixth overall in the first round of the 1975 NBA Draft by the Portland Trail Blazers, Hollins earned a spot on the 1976 All-Rookie First Team and won an NBA Championship as a starter for the Trail Blazers in 1977, where he was a teammate of current Grizzlies Assistant Coach Johnny Davis. A year later, he was an NBA All-Star while also being named to the NBA's All-Defensive First Team. Hollins averaged 11.6 points, 4.5 assists and 1.56 steals over 673 career games with Portland, Philadelphia 76ers, San Diego Clippers, Detroit Pistons and Houston Rockets.

Hollins has been inducted into the Halls of Fame of the NCAA, Arizona State University, Nevada High School Basketball, Southern Nevada Sports and the Pac-10. In addition, he has been named one of the top 100 athletes of Nevada and one of the top 150 athletes of Arizona. His No. 14 jersey has been retired by the Portland Trail Blazers.

Hollins, who has maintained a residence in the Bluff City, has been extremely active in the Memphis community. He has been a regular participant in Community Investment and Grizzlies Foundation programs, and has established the Lionel Hollins Bowling for Backpacks event, which has helped raise thousands of dollars to purchase school supplies and uniforms for underprivileged youth since its inception in 2003.

Hollins, 55, is married and has four children.

Bibby started his coaching career in the 1981-82 season, leading the CBA's Lancaster Lightning to the league championship and winning CBA Coach of the Year honors in his debut season as head coach. Overall, Bibby posted a 223-213 regular season record in the CBA with six different teams, including the Lancaster Lightning (1982), the Baltimore Lightning (1986), the Savannah Spirits (1988), the Tulsa Fast Breakers (1989-91), where he won a second CBA title in 1989, and the Oklahoma City Cavalry (1992-94).

The Franklinton, N.C. native played three seasons (1969-72) at UCLA where, under head coach John Wooden, he was the starting point guard on three NCAA title teams, earning consensus All-American honors as a senior while serving as the team's captain. The Bruins lost just three games total in Bibby's three collegiate seasons and finished a perfect 30-0 in capturing the 1972 NCAA Championship.

Bibby is the father of former Vancouver Grizzlies guard Mike Bibby, currently with the Atlanta Hawks.

DAVID JOERGER
Assistant Coach

David Joerger enters his third season on the Grizzlies' bench after recently coaching the Grizzlies summer league squad to a perfect 5-0 record in the 2009 NBA Summer League in Las Vegas.

Before earning his first NBA assistant coaching job with the Grizzlies, Joerger gained fame as one of the most successful minor league basketball coaches in history, serving as head coach of the 2006-07 NBA D-League Champion Dakota Wizards. Afterwards, he became just the sixth head coach (15th coach overall) in D-League history to join the NBA coaching ranks.

The title was the fifth he has won as a head coach, as he also has one International Basketball Association (IBA) title and three Continental Basketball Association (CBA) championships, along with two CBA Coach of the Year honors and a 232-117 (.665) head coaching record.

After finishing his playing career at Moorhead State, Joerger got his start as the Dakota Wizards' general manager when they were members of the IBA. He received his first opportunity on the sidelines as an assistant coach during the 1997-98 season. After three years as an assistant, Joerger replaced head coach Duane Ticknor and led the Wizards to their first championship during the 2000-01 season. Prior to the 2001-02 season, the Wizards moved into the CBA where Joerger led the team to another title. Continuing his success, Joerger captured his third title in four years after the Wizards defeated the Idaho Stampede to win the 2003-04 CBA Championship.

During the summer of 2004, Joerger moved to Sioux Falls to become the head coach of the Skyforce and proceeded to win his fourth CBA Championship, giving him more minor league championships than minor league-turned-NBA head coaches Phil Jackson, Flip Saunders, George Karl and Eric Musselman combined.

An excellent teacher of the game, Joerger had 18 of his players called up to the NBA from 2003-07.

The Don Poier Media Center

On January 21, 2005, the Memphis Grizzlies suffered a tremendous loss when the team's play-by-play announcer, Don Poier, passed away at the age of 53. Poier was known as "the Voice of the Grizzlies," serving as a radio and television announcer since the team's inception in Vancouver in 1995.

He brought to Grizzlies broadcasts knowledge of the team and passion for the game that was second to none. His legacy to the franchise was secured in April 2005 when the team named the media suite at FedExForum the Don Poier Media Center. A banner was also hung from the rafters in FedExForum in his honor.

When the Grizzlies moved to Memphis from Vancouver in 2001, Poier immediately became a fixture in Memphis. Fans who had never heard him call a game before instantly fell in love with his style. He was the team's biggest supporter, yet was unafraid to tell the truth if the team was playing poorly.

His catchphrases, which he always came up with on the spot, never failed to make listeners chuckle. His signature phrase, 'Only in the movies and in Memphis', was used regularly during the 2003-04 season as the team embarked on its amazing 50-win season and first playoff appearance. As one of the original Grizzlies, no one was more excited to be a part of that season's magical ride than Don Poier, who had been through the highest of highs and lowest of lows with the Grizzlies. But Poier's contributions in the broadcast booth were only the tip of the iceberg of a life that touched so many. His wife, Barb, came to every Grizzlies home game, and became as much a fixture at the arena as her husband.

Don and Barb derived great pleasure from their blended family, which included Don's three daughters, Barb's five children and 10 grandchildren. Although these were the immediate members of Poier's family, by no means were they the only members.

Anyone who worked for the Grizzlies organization was a member of the Poier family. He made a point of introducing himself to everyone he didn't know. His large family grew to thousands as he recruited each fan who listened to his distinctive booming voice.

His spirit and generosity also extended to the community. Poier was a fixture at Grizzlies community events, attending dozens of events on behalf of the Grizzlies every year. He was a member of the Bellingham Boys and Girls Club in Washington State, and hosted a summer golf tournament in his home state of Washington.

Poier's memory will always be treasured by his Grizzlies family.

The Grizzlies honored Don Poier, "The Voice of the Grizzlies," by naming the media center in FedExForum after him.

Community Investment

Mission Statement

Our mission is to create opportunities for area youth through community outreach, education and sport development initiatives.

Community Outreach

The Memphis Grizzlies invest in communities throughout the Mid-South by providing quality services, programs, events and in-kind donations that support the needs of area hospitals, schools and nonprofits. During the 2008-09 season, the Grizzlies supported over 400 local and regional organizations through its Donations In-Kind and Tickets for Kids programs. In addition, the Grizzlies host several seasonal programs, which include events such as the Annual Tip-Off Luncheon supporting Memphis Grizzlies House at St. Jude Children's Research Hospital and the Boys & Girls Clubs of Greater Memphis, canned food drives to benefit the Mid-South Food Bank, the Memphis Grizzlies Holiday Toy Drive benefiting MIFA's Holiday Hope Chest, St. Jude Children's Research Hospital's Thanks and Giving and Give Thanks campaigns, Black History Month on-court recognitions and Grizzlies Go Green week. During the holiday season, Grizzlies players and coaches visit local hospitals such as Le Bonheur Children's Medical Center and St. Jude Children's Research Hospital to sign autographs and distribute toys to patients and their families. This past season, players also took time to visit with youth at area Boys & Girls Clubs, as well as serve holiday meals at Youth Villages and the Salvation Army. Grizzlies employees also take time to give back at the holidays by adopting "angels" from the Salvation Army's Angel Tree program, purchasing gifts for kids that would go without otherwise.

O.J. Mayo, Lionel Hollins and Darrell Arthur load boxes of food into trucks for Feed The Children.

Education

The NBA's Read to Achieve Program is the most extensive educational outreach initiative in the history of professional sports. Read to Achieve is designed to encourage our community's youth to develop a life-long love for reading and to promote the value of reading and literacy. Since the Grizzlies moved to Memphis from Vancouver in 2001, players, coaches and staff members have been actively involved in Read to Achieve by reading to students at area schools. Each season, the Grizzlies partner with International Paper to host a Read to Achieve Celebration at FedExForum. The Celebration rewards the top 100 readers from each school participating in the Memphis Grizzlies Reading Challenge. The Reading Challenge is a four-week literacy initiative that encourages students first through fourth grades to read outside the classroom. Collectively, 63 schools participated in the program and read over four million minutes. The Grizzlies' Read to Achieve program touches the lives of nearly 25,000 Mid-South students through the Grizzlies Reading Challenge, Read to Achieve Assemblies and Grizzlies Reading and Learning Centers. In addition to the Read to Achieve Program, the Grizzlies host the Stay in School Challenge presented by Lucite International to help encourage students to increase their attendance rates by attending school regularly.

Sport Development

The Memphis Grizzlies key sport development initiatives include the Grizzlies Hoop Camp Series, Get Fit with the Grizzlies and Jr. Grizzlies. The Grizzlies Hoop Camp Series consists of four camps: fall, holiday, spring break and summer. Each hoop camp series focuses on developing basketball fundamental skills in a safe and fun environment and are open to area youth ages 6-14 of all skill levels. The Grizzlies partner with Memphis Heart Clinic and Cargill to present the Get Fit with the Grizzlies Fitness Challenge, a health and fitness initiative for area fourth- and fifth-grade students. Get Fit is a four-week program that challenges students to make healthy food choices and maintain an active lifestyle. The Challenge tips off in the fall of each year and during the Challenge, students record their daily physical activities and healthy food choices. Last year almost 9,000 students from three school districts participated. Jr. Grizzlies provides area recreation basketball leagues the opportunity to be affiliated with the Grizzlies by receiving game tickets, professional basketball clinics for participating players and coaches and an official Jr. Grizzlies jersey. There were over 2,000 youth participants in the Jr. Grizzlies League last year.

For more information on all of the Memphis Grizzlies community outreach, education and sport development initiatives, please visit the Community section of the team's web site at grizzlies.com.

Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Foundation

The Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Foundation is committed to serving Memphis youth through education and mentoring. Since December 2001, the Foundation (and the Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Fund, which preceded the Foundation) has donated over $22 million to Memphis-area nonprofit organizations. Tens of thousands of individuals have directly benefited from these funds, resulting in new facilities, programs and outreach, including Memphis Athletic Ministries, Grizzlies Academy, Memphis Grizzlies House at St. Jude and the Soulsville Foundation.

Beyond the cash contributions, what distinguishes the Grizzlies Foundation among other professional sports teams' foundations is the partnerships created and cultivated with all agencies receiving funding. A relationship is born from each cash transaction, and combined with ongoing, hands-on involvement, significant outcomes are achieved.

This commitment earned the Grizzlies Foundation the 2007 Steve Patterson Sports Philanthropy Award for Excellence in Sports Philanthropy, presented by the Sports Philanthropy Project and the Robert Wood Johnson Foundation.

TEAM UP with the Grizzlies Youth Mentoring Initiative

The Grizzlies Foundation launched the TEAM UP campaign to build awareness and recruit individuals to be volunteer mentors. Expanding youth mentoring in Memphis has been the top priority for the Grizzlies Foundation, because research shows that youth who have adult mentors, whether a parent, teacher, coach, religious leader or other role model, have a greater likelihood of succeeding in spite of their personal circumstances. Academic achievement, resistance to gang involvement and drugs and aspirations for higher education are among the documented results.

Since September 2008, the Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Foundation became the new home for the Memphis Mentoring Partnership. An affiliate of MENTOR, the National Mentoring Partnership, MMP offers training, program support and resources to raise the quality of mentoring throughout Memphis and Shelby County. Members represent businesses, faith-based organizations, nonprofits and volunteers committed to providing young people with mentors in our community.

The Grizzlies Foundation invites individuals and organizations from across the Mid-South interested and engaged in mentoring young people. By hosting special events, which feature national champions for mentoring including NBA legend Bill Russell, engaging civic and business leaders as spokespeople, creating partnerships with myriad groups and individuals and serving as a clearinghouse for volunteer opportunities, many more youth will have mentors offering guidance and support.

As a hub for youth mentoring, any individual or organization interested in mentoring will find the resources and guidance necessary to get involved in a meaningful, lasting way. For more information, visit teamupmemphis.org.

Grantmaking

The Grizzlies Foundation is proud to work closely with over 20 local nonprofit organizations that provide critical services, resources and aid to youth and families throughout Memphis. From after-school sports leagues to career development, abuse counseling to youth and family mentoring, these partners are on the front lines, helping the Grizzlies Foundation carry out its mission each and every day. The Grizzlies Foundation is committed to providing resources and support above and beyond funding to its partners. These resources range from complimentary tickets and special appearances to fundraising support and mentor recruitment and training. Grants are announced during an annual event each fall.

Honoring Military Families

The Memphis Grizzlies are grateful to the men and women who serve in the U.S. military and protect our freedom. Deployments away from home place stress and anxiety on these soldiers, as well as their families. For a fifth season, the Memphis Grizzlies Charitable Foundation honors some of these Mid-South families by hosting families at Grizzlies home games during the 2009-10 season and recognizing the whole family during an on-court presentation.

Don Poier Memorial Scholarship Awards

In the wake of the unexpected death of broadcast legend Don Poier, the "Voice of the Grizzlies," in January 2005, funds were raised in order to create an endowed scholarship now housed at the Community Foundation of Greater Memphis. This scholarship ensures the legacy of Don Poier lives on by providing a deserving graduating senior with resources to pursue a degree in broadcast journalism.

Donations to support this scholarship may be sent to the Community Foundation of Greater Memphis, Attn: Don Poier Memorial Scholarship, 1900 Union Ave., Memphis, TN 38104.

Staxtacular

Each winter, Memphis Grizzlies players host Staxtacular, the "soul shakin' party" for the Stax Music history. Since 2005, over $450,000 in net proceeds has supported the Academy's mentoring and special performance opportunities and music programs. The 2009 hosts were Rudy Gay, O.J. Mayo, and Mike Conley. Staxtacular is an annual fundraiser to support Stax Music Academy, an after-school and summer music instruction and performance charter school for youth from the Soulsville neighborhood. Music education, coupled with Stax instructors, staff and mentors instill discipline and give them values and skills that will last a lifetime. Visit staxtacular.com or soulsvilleusa.com for more information. The 2010 event is scheduled for March 19, 2010.

NBA Cares

NBA Cares is the league's global community outreach initiative that addresses important social issues such as education, youth and family development and health and wellness. The NBA, its teams and players support a range of programs, partners and initiatives that strive to positively impact children and families worldwide.

As part of the league's mission to demonstrate leadership in social responsibility, NBA Cares reaches communities through philanthropy, hands-on service and legacy projects. Since the program's October 2005 launch, the league, players and teams have raised more than $110 million for charity, provided more than one million hours of hands-on service, and built more than 425 places where kids and families can live, learn or play in communities around the world.

NBA Cares reaches millions of children and adults through special programs like NBA FIT and Basketball without Borders. The league, its teams and players also promote environmental awareness and sustainability through NBA Green. During high-profile league events like NBA All-Star Weekend and The NBA Finals, community outreach efforts use the power of sport to effect positive social change.

Thanks to strong partnerships with internationally recognized community organizations such as Make-A-Wish, UNICEF, KaBOOM!, Habitat for Humanity, Boys & Girls Clubs of America, Hands On Network, Special Olympics, the Global Business Coalition on HIV/AIDS, Tuberculosis and Malaria, and the UN Foundation, NBA Cares works to improve communities in need around the world.

FEDEXFORUM

FedExForum was delivered on time and on budget to the City of Memphis.

Memphis' Front Porch

The $250 million FedExForum opened on time and on budget in September 2004, and since then has come to be known as the premier arena in the NBA and in North America. It is home to the NBA's Memphis Grizzlies and the University of Memphis Tigers men's basketball team, and in the five basketball seasons since FedExForum opened, the arena has played host to two NBA Playoff series, five consecutive Conference USA Men's Basketball Tournaments (2004-09), and the 2009 NCAA South Regional Men's Division I Basketball Tournament.

Last season, FedExForum saw another strong year, hosting over 100 arena events and over 100 private meeting events that took advantage of some of the unique meeting and function spaces throughout the arena. This season is also looking like another great year with some exciting new events coming to Memphis!

FedExForum has already played host to many concerts of chart-topping stars including: the Rolling Stones, Elton John, George Strait, Justin Timberlake, Kenny Chesney, Tim McGraw, Faith Hill, John Mayer, Toby Keith, Alan Jackson, Nickelback, Hannah Montana, Kid Rock, Alicia Keys, Rascal Flats, Michael Bublé, Beyoncé and AC/DC among many other A-List acts that have played FedExForum.

Additionally, Memphis and FedExForum have become a premier location for major boxing events having already hosted seven World Championship Boxing events, four concert rehearsals and tour openings as well as many major family shows like the Ringling Bros. and Barnum and Bailey Circus, Disney on Ice, Monster Jam and Motocross, World Wrestling Entertainment, Cirque du Soleil and Professional Bull Riders. FedExForum also looks forward to hosting major mixed martial arts events in the future.

FedExForum has become more than just an arena. It has achieved the goal set by Grizzlies ownership, management and community leaders and has become the new front porch for Memphis, a place where people can come together. Since the arena opened in September 2004, millions of fans have enjoyed a basketball game, concert or event at FedExForum. Additionally, FedExForum has become synonymous with unprecedented "Fans First" service, as every guest who enters the building is welcomed and taken care of.

In the fall of 2008, FedExForum established a venue services agreement with AEG Facilities, a wholly-owned subsidiary of the Anschutz Company, and one of the leading sports and entertainment presenters in the world. As a result of the agreement, executive members of the AEG Facilities staff work directly with the management team at FedExForum to design and provide various support services and resources to stimulate additional revenue growth and create new revenue streams for the organization while enhancing existing business practices. The overall focus of the consulting agreement will be to maximize event activity, create new marketing partnerships and generate sales initiatives for the venue.

So what is it about FedExForum that has the city, the NBA and fans buzzing?

There are five seating levels in the arena with wide concourses making navigating the building easy. There are over 100 points of sale for concession stands, meaning expedited service. There are four full-service restaurants, with three offering service to Premium Seat Holders: Opus, a fine dining restaurant overlooking the court; the newly-renovated Blue Note Lounge, where fans can get a cocktail and a light meal before or during the game and enjoy the new standing ledge; the Lexus Lounge, where fans can watch the Grizzlies run onto the court from the locker room; and one open to all fans just off the Grand Lobby – Jack Daniel's Old No. 7 Sports Bar – a fun pregame meeting place with patio seating. There is also the Legends Lounge, a patio area overlooking Beale Street where fans can meet and greet before and after every Grizzlies game. Each of these spaces is also available to rent for private functions during non-game or event times.

Justin Timberlake

All of the food in FedExForum is provided by Levy Restaurants, the leader in sports and entertainment venue dining, and fans experience selection and quality beyond anything they've ever had at a sporting event. Whether it's a Memphis favorite such as Neely's Barbecue, something more exotic, or traditional fare like hamburgers, every fan can find something to satisfy their appetite.

Once in their seats, the first thing fans notice is the massive videoboard. Designed by Daktronics, the center-hung scoreboard provides fans with live video, instant replays and information on 10 large, digital full-color displays, including four dedicated scoring sections. The scoreboard is one of the biggest in the NBA, measuring approximately 22-by-38 feet. The unique design of the main center-hung scoreboard includes two 360-degree full-color rings of LED on the top and bottom of the scoreboard. Four additional video displays, in vertical configuration, flank the main video screens and dedicated scoring sections.

To complement the center-hung video and scoring displays, additional LED displays are prominently featured around the seating bowl. One 360-degree ring of light encircles the entire seating bowl, mounted on the Terrace Level fascia. A second large display curves 270 degrees around the Club Level fascia. The four

NCAA Regionals

LED rings comprise one of the largest amount of linear feet of LED in any arena in the United States. FedExForum is also equipped with a state-of-the-art sound system, as well as acoustic technology, making the sound in the arena crystal clear.

Before, during and after games, fans can buy the latest merchandise and Grizzlies gear in the Grizzlies Den Team Store, located in the Grand Lobby and at several boutique stores throughout FedExForum. The store is also open on non-game days from 10 a.m. – 5 p.m. Monday – Friday and 10 a.m. – 4 p.m. on Saturday. Summer hours are Monday – Friday 11 a.m. – 4 p.m. (closed Saturdays and Sundays). Contact the Grizzlies Team Store by phone at (901) 205-1551.

One of the most unique features of FedExForum is the music theme that is prevalent throughout the arena. Luxury Suite holders have their name engraved on a record outside their suite, and lyric sheets from famous Memphis songs appear prominently on the walls. Concessions and restaurants are named with uniquely Memphis music themes and areas of the arena concourses are divided into sponsored zones highlighting musical genres like Rock 'n' Roll, the Blues, Gospel, Memphis Music Today and more.

FedExForum is also home to the Rock 'n' Soul Museum on the street level of the administration building. The Rock 'n' Soul Museum traces the roots of rock 'n' roll and soul music in Memphis, offering visitors a self-guided tour of Memphis music from the early 20th century into the 70s. The Rock 'n' Soul Museum is one of only two Smithsonian Institution exhibits not located in Washington, D.C.

FedExForum has set a new standard for arenas in the NBA and has surpassed all expectations. But in addition to all the impressive numbers, it achieved something even more significant: it became Memphis' new front porch and the premier showcase of entertainment in the Mid-South.

2009-10 NBA Player Personnel Rules

Active List

Under the Collective Bargaining Agreement, each team is required to carry 12 players on its active list and at least one player on its inactive list. Teams may have a maximum of three players on its inactive list, which includes any players sent to the NBA Development League.

In the past, a team maintained a 12-player roster, with additional players being put on the injured list, which forced the player to sit a minimum of five games before again being eligible to play. Now, the active and inactive list can be set on a game-by-game basis, one hour before tip-off, with no length of stay required for either list.

Playoff Rosters

Must be submitted by 3 p.m. Eastern Time (2 p.m. Central Time) on April 15, 2010.

Renunciation of Amateur Eligibility

Beginning in 2006, the age limit for entering the Draft increased from 18 to 19 years of age. U.S. players must be at least one year removed from high school and 19 years of age (by the end of that calendar year) before entering the draft. An international player must turn 19 during the calendar year of the draft.

Instant Replay Rules

Instant replay review will be triggered automatically – and not at the discretion of the officials or teams – in the following situations:

Field Goal Attempts

A field goal that could affect the outcome of the game is made with no time remaining on the clock (0:00) at the end of the fourth quarter or any overtime period.

A field goal is made with no time remaining on the clock (0:00) at the end of the first, second and third quarters.

Once replay is triggered in either of these two situations, the officials will review instant replay to determine whether time on the game clock had expired before the ball left the shooter's hand. If the shot was timely, the officials may also review tape to determine if the field goal was scored correctly as a two-point or three-point basket, whether the shooter committed a boundary line violation when he released the ball and whether a 24-second clock or 8-second backcourt violation occurred before the shot.

Fouls

A foul for which the resulting free throws could affect the outcome of the game is called with no time remaining on the clock (0:00) at the end of the fourth quarter or any overtime period.

A foul is called with no time remaining on the clock (0:00) at the end of the first, second and third quarters.

In these situations, officials will review instant replay to determine only whether the called foul occurred prior to the expiration of the time on the game clock and not whether the call itself was correct.

Instant replay reviews will be conducted and processed in two minutes or less by the game officials. The call made during play will only be reversed when the replay provides the officials with a "clear and conclusive" basis to do so.

Instant replay will be used to review all Flagrant Foul Two calls and player altercations.

OUR EXPERIENCE TREATING

WINGS, PAWS, FLIPPERS AND CLAWS

MAKES US BETTER AT HEALING

SHOULDERS, ANKLES, KNEES AND ELBOWS.

Why do we play sports? Because it is there. Because adrenaline is a drug that feeds the soul. And because for those lucky few able to run faster, jump higher, throw farther and dive deeper, glory awaits.

So we play. And sometimes, we get hurt. But we don't mind. Even the biggest, strongest, and fastest of us get hurt. We accept that as part of sport. What we don't like, what we detest, is not being able to play.

That's where Campbell Clinic comes in.

Our sports medicine staff specializes in getting athletes off the training table and back on the field as quickly as possible, including many from the professional and college ranks.

And if people whose careers are dependent upon healthy bodies think we're the best, then odds are we're a pretty good choice for weekend warriors, long-time couch potatoes, or anyone who turns an ankle, wrenches a back or twists a wrist.

CAMPBELL CLINIC IS PROUD TO BE THE OFFICIAL SPORTS MEDICINE PROVIDERS FOR THE MEMPHIS GRIZZLIES, THE MEMPHIS REDBIRDS, UNIVERSITY OF MEMPHIS ATHLETICS, RHODES COLLEGE ATHLETICS, CHRISTIAN BROTHERS UNIVERSITY ATHLETICS, THE MEMPHIS RIVERKINGS, THE KROGER ST. JUDE TENNIS TOURNAMENT, AND BALLET MEMPHIS.
